Roselin Court is one of Life Care's five Residential Living communities. It is nestled between the leafy suburbs of St Peters and Marden and close to public transport. Roselin Court has been designed to create a community environment that focuses on a high quality of life and provide all residents with opportunities to 'Live Every Day'.

Roslin Court has extensive landscaped gardens and outdoor courtyards for residents and visitors to enjoy.

Our rooms are designed to maximise natural light and offer garden or street views. Residents are encouraged to personalise their rooms with their own chairs, pictures and small mementos and make it individual, homely and familiar.

Residents enjoy meals from an à la carte menu cooked on-site in the various dining areas and socialise in the many communal lounge and activity areas.

Our residents are encouraged to engage, participate and become actively involved in the Roselin Court community. There are regular social outings and activities, tailored to residents' interests, including excursions, exercise classes, table games, arts and crafts, men's groups, bingo, gardening, knitting, cooking and visiting groups.

Life Care also helps residents stay connected with their own communities and clubs wherever possible with the assistance of volunteers.

Residents' health and well-being is supported by allied health professionals, their visiting doctor and Life Care's caring and skilled team.

At Life Care we can give you peace of mind, and the support you need.

The aged care system in Australia aims to make sure that all older people can receive support and quality care when they need it. The recent Government aged care reforms mean that all people entering residential living after 1 July 2014 have more flexibility and choice about how they pay for their accommodation.
