

Home Care Packages 2018 |19 Effective 1 October 2018

Life Care is committed to supporting people who want to stay in their own home, remain independent and continue to be a part of their local community. To achieve this, sometimes a little extra help is needed. For example, assistance with shopping, preparing meals, social outings with friends or maintaining the garden.

At Home, Life Care's Home Care service, can offer you that in-home help delivered by highly trained and experienced staff with a range of services from domestic assistance, personal care and nursing through to respite services, transportation, social activities and network support.

At Home, Life Care offers:

- No set up or exit fees are charged
- Fully trained staff who hold a current National Police Clearance certificate
- Experienced staff who are trained in dementia care
- Administration fees average of 15%
- Advisory charges vary depending on your desired level of involvement 10-20%
- *Charges may vary depending on the day and time of the week
